THE LAND WE LOVE.

No. I. NOVEMBER, 1868. Vol. VI.

CONTENTS.

Battle of Eutaw, From Simms' Eutaw.....1
Nameless, (Poetry,) By H. T. Stanton, Maysville, Ky.....5
Battle of Pleasant Hill, By Thos. R. Bonner, Rusk, Texas...7
The Vanity and the Glory of Literature, By Prof. C. S. Dod, Washington College, Va.....13
Evening Fancies, (Poetry,) By Miss Mary Thacker, Hamburg, Arkansas.....33
The Valborgsmas Tryst, By Author of "Ingemisco," "Randolph Honor," &c., &c.....34
Baby Power, (Poetry,) By Mrs. Rosa Vertner Jeffrey, Lexington, Kentucky.....43
Windsor Castle, By Our London Correspondent.....45
Orchards, (Contributed,).....50
Concerning Heroes, By * * * Sardis, Miss.....51
Mrs. Crenshaw's Story, By Fanny Fielding, Norfolk, Va.....64
Organ Grinders, By T. C. DeLeon, Baltimore, Md.....72
Casualties in Cheatham's Division—1864.....78
Haversack.....79
A Singular Coincidence in Languages, By Prof. E. F. Rockwell, Davidson College, N. C.....86
Editorial.....87
Jean Ingelow, By Mrs. Margaret J. Preston, Lexington, Va.....91

WANTED.

For the following numbers of The Land We Love we will pay 25 cents or extend your subscription one month for each number sent to our address:

August, 1866, February, March, May, June, July and August, 1868.

 In making remittances of money to The Land We Love use checks on New York, or Post Office money orders on Charlotte. If these cannot be had, send by Express, or in Registered Letters.

 Hereafter, on the receipt of $15.00 by Express, Check, or Post-Office Money Order, an extra copy of the Magazine will be sent, for one year, to clubs of five subscribers.

THE LAND WE LOVE.

No. II. DECEMBER, 1868. Vol. VI.

CONTENTS.

Diary of Lieut. Col. Hubbell, of 3rd Regiment Missouri Infantry, C. S. A.....97
Anita, (Poetry,) By Paul H. Hayne, Augusta, Ga.....106
The Duty of the Hour, By R. L. Dabney, D.D., Hampden Sidney College, Va.....108
The Beautiful Snow, (Poetry,) By Miss Caroline Griswold, Charleston, South Carolina.....120
Letters From Mount Vernon, (Contributed.).....122
St. Louis, Missouri, By C. H. Jones, New York City.....126
Beast Butler Defended, By G. Manigault, Yorkville, S. C...135
Pen-Feather, By Mrs. L. Virginia French, McMinnville, Tenn..143
The Washington Artillery of New Orleans, (Selected.)..150
In an Old Drawer, (Contributed.).....155
Haversack.....162
Editorial.....170
Book Notices.....179

WANTED.

For the following numbers of The Land We Love we will pay 25 cents or extend your subscription one month for each number sent to our address:

August, 1866, February, March, May, June, July, and August, 1868.

 In making remittances of money to The Land We Love use checks on New York, or Post Office money orders on Charlotte. If these cannot be had, send by Express, or in Registered Letters.

 Hereafter, on the receipt of $15.00 by Express, Check, or Post-Office Money Order, an extra copy of the Magazine will be sent, for one year, to clubs of five subscribers.

THE LAND WE LOVE.

No. III. JANUARY, 1869. Vol. VI.

CONTENTS.

Capture of Fort De Russy, La., By Col. Wm. Byrd, Winchester, Virginia.....185
The Dial-Plate, (Poetry,) By A. J. Requier.....187
The Humors of Sydney Smith, By W. N. Nelson, Millwood, Virginia.....189
Robert Buchanan's Poems, By Mrs. Margaret J. Preston, Lexington, Va.....196
Cromwell, (Poetry,) By Dr. F. O. Ticknor, Columbus, Ga.....198
A Dream or not a Dream, By Mrs. Weiss, lately Miss Susan Archer Talley, Richmond, Va.....199
The Value of Trees, (Contributed.).....204
A Review on James Island, (Contributed.).....212
The Valley Manuscript, By Fanny Fielding, Norfolk, Va...215
About Beggars, By T. C. DeLeon, Mobile, Ala.....229
Noted Churches of Paris, By G. T. Webster, New Orleans...235
Baltimore, [Poetry,) By Mrs. Fanny Downing, Charlotte, N. C 240
A Virginia Scotch Family in 1804, From MSS. of Hon. Wm. C. Preston, of S. C.....243
Religion in the Public Schools of the North, By Rev. A. F. Dickson, Orangeburg, S. C.....244
The Haversack.....248
Editorial.....255
Book Notices.....259

WANTED.

For the following numbers of The Land We Love we will pay 25 cents or extend your subscription one month for each number sent to our address:

August, 1866; July and October, 1867; May and June, 1868.

 In making remittances of money to The Land We Love use checks on New York, or Post Office money orders on Charlotte. If these cannot be had, send by Express, or in Registered Letters.

 Hereafter, on the receipt of $15.00 by Express, Check, or Post-Office Money Order, an extra copy of the Magazine will be sent, for one year, to clubs of five subscribers.

THE LAND WE LOVE.

No. IV. FEBRUARY, 1869. Vol. VI.

CONTENTS.

Popular Errors in Regard to the Battles of the War, By Gen. Jubal A. Early.....265
The Southern Cross, (Poetry,) By Mrs. Susan Archer Talley Weiss, Richmond, Va.....278
Rose Cottage, (Contributed.).....279
Sketch of Col. Joseph H. Daviess of Kentucky, By Mrs. M. T. Daviess, Harrodsburg, Ky.....293
Let Us Have Peace, (Poetry,) By Mrs. Fanny Downing, Charlotte, North Carolina.....301
Concentrative Immigration, By P. M. Edmonston, Esq., Halifax, North Carolina.....303
My Knapsack, By J. H. McNamara, St. Louis, Mo.....316
The Last King of the Quapaws, By Maj. W. F. Douglass, Auburn, Arkansas.....319
About Birds, By Rev. R. Wilson, Statesburg, S. C.....325
Women, and the Lives of Women, By Mrs. Mary W. Loughborough, Carondelet, Mo.....329
Alice, (Poetry,) By J. Augustine Signaigo, Grenada, Miss.....336
The Haversack.....337
Editorial.....344
A Review of Eglantine, By Mrs. Margaret J. Preston, Lexington, Virginia.....352
Book Notices.....355

WANTED.

For the following numbers of The Land We Love we will pay 25 cents or extend your subscription one month for each number sent to our address:

August, 1866; Oct. and Nov., 1867; Feb. April and Nov., 1868.

 In making remittances of money to The Land We Love use checks on New York, or Post Office money orders on Charlotte. If these cannot be had, send by Express, or in Registered Letters.

 Hereafter, on the receipt of $15.00 by Express, Check, or Post-Office Money Order, an extra copy of the Magazine will be sent, for one year, to clubs of five subscribers.

THE LAND WE LOVE.

No. V. MARCH, 1869. Vol. VI.

CONTENTS.

Sketch of Gen. Slack, of Missouri, (Contributed.).....357
The Burial and Resurrection of Love, (Poetry,) By Pearl Rivers,.....360
All About It, By Ex-Gov. Z. B. Vance, of N. C.,.....363
Dead—Very Dead, By Mrs. L. Virginia French, McMinnville, Tennessee,.....383
Mammy! (Poetry,) By Mrs. L. Virginia French, McMinnville, Tennessee,.....388
Bee Culture, (Contributed,).....390
John C. Calhoun, By Ex-Gov. Perry, of S. C.,.....397
About Birds, By Rev. R. Wilson, Statesburg, S. C.,.....403
Baby, (Poetry,) By Mrs. Fanny Downing, Charlotte, N. C.,.....408
An Old Man's Memories, By Miss M. L. Morris, Omega, La.,.411
The Haversack.....413
Editorial.....422
Book Notices.....431

WANTED.

For the following numbers of The Land We Love we will pay 25 cents or extend your subscription one month for each number sent to our address:

August, 1866; Oct. and Nov., 1867; Feb. April and Nov., 1868.

 In making remittances of money to The Land We Love use checks on New York, or Post Office money orders on Charlotte. If these cannot be had, send by Express, or in Registered Letters.

 Hereafter, on the receipt of $15.00 by Express, Check, or Post-Office Money Order, an extra copy of the Magazine will be sent, for one year, to clubs of five subscribers.